

"Well done, good and faithful servant"

Matthew 25:21

I. Why Devote Your Life to God? (What makes someone a good and faithful servant?)

A. Your view of _____

B. Your view of _____

C. Your view of _____

II. What Should You Devote to God? (What is a job well done?)

III. How Do You Devote Your Life to God? (How do I start getting there?)

A. Know the _____

B. Take a _____

C. Enjoy the _____

Discussion Questions

1. In the context of stewardship/responsibility, how do you generally view yourself, God and rewards?
2. What have you learned from the Parable of the Talents about how you need to change your view of yourself, God, or rewards?
3. What is one thing you can do to better manage the responsibility God has given you?
4. How can you better know the Lord in that area of responsibility?